

Forestry Plantations Queensland Pty Ltd (FPQ) is committed to building and maintaining a culture that is underpinned by high performance, safety and values.

What can we offer you?

FPQ can provide you with the opportunity to work for an environmentally responsible international market leader. We offer attractive remuneration, work life balance, opportunity for career growth, and have a culture focussed on health and safety.

About FPQ

FPQ is Queensland's largest private plantation forest company which manages over 200,000 hectares of plantation forest and adjoining native forest throughout Queensland.

FPQ is part of the international Hancock Timber Resources Group (HTRG), the world's largest timberland investment manager for institutional investors. HTRG manages over $9 billion in timberlands located in the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and Brazil.

FPQ is commercially-focused and is committed to high forest stewardship values and to providing a safe and rewarding work environment within which our employees are encouraged to exercise leadership.

Our Values

We take PRIDE in the commercial and sustainable management of our forests to exceed investor and stakeholder expectations:

People: FPQ values its employees, contractors and other stakeholders. FPQ is committed to providing a safe and rewarding work environment and aspires to Leadership, Learning and Innovation through embracing challenges and opportunities;

Reputation: FPQ sets high standards for financial management, operational performance, resource data management and corporate governance;

Integrity: All of FPQ's dealings are characterised by the highest level of honesty and fairness;

Delivery: FPQ provides the highest quality products, services and sustainable value. FPQ will deliver on its commitments and obligations;

Environment: Forests under FPQ care are managed from a long-term stewardship perspective that benefits our environment as well as our stakeholders. FPQ is committed to sustainable forest management.
